Dear Mr. Balasundaram Iyer,

6. The Dewan has kindly sanctioned verbally the casual leave for seven days from the 1st proximo when my deputation at Alwar ends, and asked me to forward the formal application through you which I have done. I now understand that the Code allows only five days' casual leave to be taken at a time and shall therefore thank you to be so good as to obtain special sanction to the period I have asked for Viz., seven days.

7. I would like it also made clear that the leave I take at Alwar will not interfere with the payment of the travelling allowance for the return journey from Alwar to Bangalore so that there may be no onjection from the Comptroller on this point or on the extra leave of two days.

Yours sincerely
